ZUPA MUSI BYĆ!

What is a well-seasoned soup? A true story about life. So what is it really about? About pain, difficult topics, about hopes and promises. The best spice here is humor, which the author added from the heart! Soup is a must, but consumption has to provide reassurance. Tasty stories about life will amuse and touch. Should you take these with a grain of salt? It's up to you to decide!

OCH, ELVIS! NO, ASIU! HEJ, MAŁA!

For years, Joanna has been devoting all her free time to the residents of the nursing home. It's a job that's not quite as peaceful as it sounds! Theft of an urn, a fashion show, a ghost who loses his clothes - the crazy old ladies provide the heroine and readers with unforgettable experiences. In the midst of all this chaos, Joanna tries to put her love life in order and realize her dream of becoming a mother. These funny and touching stories about an extraordinary family are like a warm grandmotherly embrace.

As a single mother, she faces a battle in which her daughter's life is at stake. There's no sensationalism or sophisticated storytelling in this story. The simplicity comes from the naked truth about ourselves when, in a dramatic situation, we try to keep a straight face and get on with life. Lidia could pass herself off as a happy young mother, fulfilling her passions. After leaving the asylum, she vows to get on with her life as best she can, and even improve it. However, something will happen that will let fear settle into her life for good.

PREZYDENTKA

While the government once again launches a battle against women, on the other side of the barricade, Laura takes a risk: she runs for President of Poland. She easily obtains the 100,000 signatures required. She was on a roll. Until Laura's husband dies in a car accident. Laura decides to prove that someone is behind his death. She launches a private investigation, but the police accuse her of the alleged murder. Meanwhile, more and more women, angry at the government's actions, take to the city streets, and elections are fast approaching...

Marcelina is in her thirties, trained as an actress, has big ambitions, but few roles. She'll play anywhere as long as her potential is recognized.

Stanisława Umińska is considered the most talented actress of the younger generation. Her career collapses when she is accused of murdering her husband.

Pola is twelve years old when her world is turned upside down: she finds herself in a house called Przystań.

Enthralled by the children's comic strip characters of the 1930s, she dreams of becoming a superheroine herself.
